

THANKSGIVING RESOURCES FOR OHIO RESIDENTS

Times are tough and we are here to help! This guide provides a list of local food assistance resources for Ohio residents during the Thanksgiving holiday. Ohio Unity is proud to support these programs through financial contributions, helping them continue to provide meals and essential resources to those in need. Whether you or your family need assistance, these organizations are here to help make the holiday season a little brighter.

List of food assistance programs:

(Click on one of the resources below to view more about the organization)

- Neighborhood Ministries - Rockford Village Community Center
(Youngstown, OH)
- Corinthian Baptist Church
(Dayton, OH)
- MLK Kitchen For The Poor
(Toledo, OH)
- Inprem Holistic Community Resource Center
(Columbus, OH)
- Allen Temple AME Church - Cincinnati Temple Blessings
(Cincinnati, OH)
- Love In Action Ohio
(Cleveland, OH)

Note: this is not a full list of organizations providing help this season but rather, these are programs that we fully support. If you still need help, reach out to your state officials for additional resources.

Get Involved - For more information or to participate in giving back to your community by signing up for updates. Get Connected today!

